The Honorable Stansfield Turner
Central Intelligence Agency
Langley, Virginia 20505

Attention: Office of Legislative Counsel

Dear Admiral Turner:

Enclosed for your review and comment are five copies of our draft report to the Congress on efforts to protect the United States diplomatic community from terrorism.

This is a draft report of the General Accounting Office and is subject to revision. It should, therefore, not be released for unauthorized purposes, and it should be safeguarded to prevent premature or unauthorized disclosure.

We would like to meet with your representatives to discuss the draft and consider any comments you may have in about 15 days. At this time, we would also appreciate your review of the classification of various sections of the report. The report classifications are based on the highest classification of the source material and it appears that a number of sections could be either downgraded or declassified. Any inquiries on this report should be directed to Mr. Louis H. Zanardi, Project Leader, on 275-5857.

We are also furnishing copies of this draft report to the Secretaries of Treasury, State, and Defense, and to the Attorney General for review and comment.

Sincerely yours,

C. D. Hylander
